

IGKT Autumn Meeting 2018
5th - 7th October 2018
Stourport-on-Severn, England

The Guild has always had a social/exhibition event in the Autumn, this will be the first in the UK since Southam in 2014. The meeting will take place at The Civic (Martins Way, Stourport-on-Severn DY13 8UJ), a large building, originally used by the local council and now run by community volunteers – www.thecivictourport.co.uk.

Stourport-on-Severn is a small town at the junction of the River Severn and the small River Stour and also The Staffordshire and Worcestershire Canal which links the River Severn with the Trent and Mersey Canal. As a result, after Birmingham, Stourport became the busiest inland port in the Midlands in the early 1800s.

See <https://canalrivertrust.org.uk/places-to-visit/stourport-basins> for more details and a downloadable map.

Bewdley, just 3 miles north-west, is another historic riverside town and is along the route along the Severn Valley Railway. The trip to Bridgnorth is one of the prettiest in Britain, the railway follows the river along a route where there are no roads.

Programme:

Friday 5th	Afternoon: Setting up exhibition in The Civic .  Evening: from 7.00pm, social gathering in Ye Olde Crown pub, (9 Bridge St, Stourport-on-Severn DY13 8UY).
